

Building Resilience into the Landscape

Thinking Beyond the Boundary Fence

Earth Canvas Workshop

Looking at the landscape through the eyes of a Farmer, an Artist, a Scientist and an Educator. This workshop is designed to engage neighbours and catchment areas to manage water in the landscape.

- Catchment Planning
- Big Picture Planning
- Artists view of the Landscape
- Farm Walk

Monday 8th July 2019
10am to 3.30pm

at Bibbaringa 'The Woolshed'
1268 Wymah Rd, Bowna NSW

$30 includes lunch and morning tea on arrival. Bring walking shoes and warm clothing.

Tickets via:

www.trybooking.com/BDEOJ

Featuring

Peter Hazell, Project Coordinator of Mulloon Community Landscape Rehydration Project

Brian Wehlburg, Principal of Insideoutside Management: Decision making and Goal setting during tough times

Jo Davenport, Recognised Albury Landscape Artist - represented by Sydney and Melbourne Galleries How an artists views the rural landscape

For more information
Email: info@earthcanvas.com.au
Phone: 0428 696 724

A DROUGHT INITIATIVE SUPPORTED BY THE MURRAY LOCAL LAND SERVICES